

Suez Cement to donate LE 30 million to Tahya Masr Fund

Suez Cement today announced that it will commit LE 30 million over three years to the Long Live Egypt Fund as part of its comprehensive Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Program.

Mr. Bruno Carre', Suez Cement CEO, handed over the cheque to the Prime Minister, H.E. Ibrahim Mehleb, amid a function at Prime Minister's office on Wednesday, 25 of March.

"As a leader in our field, we know that it is our duty to invest in a better Egypt. We are proud to be part of a national effort to support the Egyptian economy" said Mr. Bruno Carre'. "We have made it our main goal to promote industrial development and economic performance as both a key employer and corporate citizen of Egypt. We feel that our substantial donation to the Long Live Egypt Fund will do just that and ensure that communities in need will receive much-needed support during these challenging times."

In the last few years, the Company made education and health a priority and spent over LE 40 million on related programs across the country.

The Company is careful to only choose projects that contribute to the quality of life for community members as well as comply with local government policies and the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights.
